Guys, are you fucking kidding me? An explosion on Christmas morning?

For what?? What is the purpose? Really goyim? You really think "bad people want to blow up things?"

LMFAO get real chud. Sneed it and weep.

This is as clear as day - a false flag operation.

What will they blame it on? Roll for it boys apparently someone was shooting a gun or setting off fireworks, all most like they were trying to get the cops to evac the place first....so this bombing was a message of some type from someone....I also assume from someone or some group that wants to get caught. There is no getting away with anything unless its done by the bankers, any terror attack that goes unsolved is "them" ,

Okay, I haven't even read the news about this explosion but I have seen where it happened and I can tell you guys right now that no one was hurt. Lower 2nd Ave. is the hub of the party section of Nashville, it would be completely deserted on Christmas morning. There is a wee bit of residential down there, mostly on the upper floors of brick & mortar establishments. But seeing where it happened, being from Nashville and having spent a LOT of time in that area in my youth, I can't imagine there even being any foot traffic in that area on Christmas morning.

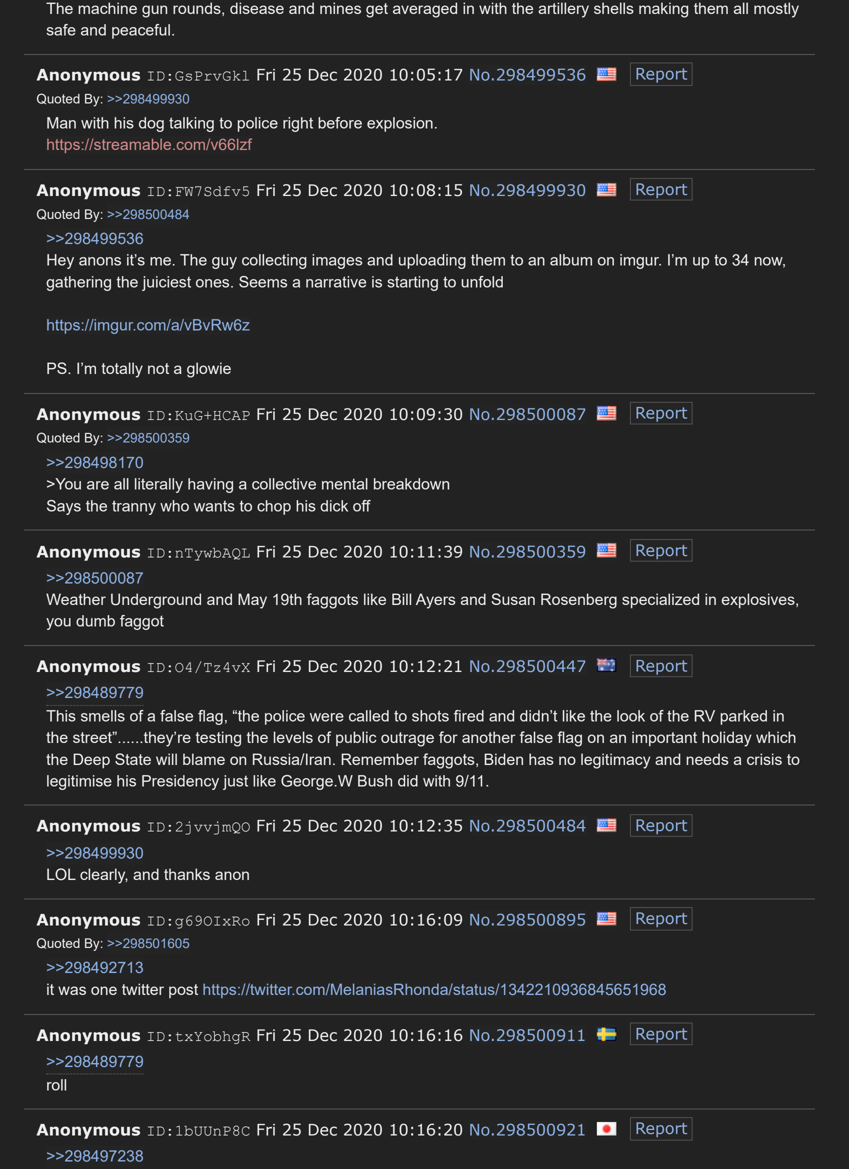
At Verdun in 1916 over 1 million artillery shells were fired. The total death toll from all causes was ~250000.



The machine gun rounds, disease and mines get averaged in with the artillery shells making them all mostly safe and peaceful.

So here is what I've learned from watching channel 2 and 5 this morning and the order we learned it, let me know if I'm missing anything.
>6:29am bomb went off
>police briefings saying it was an intentional act >police were able to evacuate apartments nearby and only 3 injured >a woman living a few blocks away had her door and window blown in >no mention of any broadcast >around 10:00 channel 5 mentions a video that has audio of broadcast telling people to leave the area >around 10:15 they have a woman on who lived in an apartment right above where the RV blew up >woman states she heard some gunshots that woke her up around 5:40 or so >10 minutes or so later another round of gunshots and she then called cops >after second round of gunshots the recorded message started playing starting at 30 minutes counting down >she evacuated across the river and when countdown completed no explosion >she started to go back to apartment and then it went off >latest press conference then mentions the broadcast but it was never mentioned until then
I just find it strange they didn't mention the broadcast in the earlier press conferences. Any other details I missed? I was watching with my family and missed the latest press conference when driving home.

Yes the top of the top has Jewish members, but the vast majority of Jews are just like everyone else. And when the hammer drops is it the elite Jews that get fucked? No, it's David and Sarah that lives down the street that get their home torched while the Rothschilds remain unharmed(and often profit from chaos).

This is as embarrassing as black people blaming whites for all their problems and then shooting a poor white man in the back.

ok so here it is faggots.. I believe Nashville bombing is from Q.

Infographic related.

QRD

>Helper says unimageable things gonna happen and communication from Q will be cut.
>Says not to believe MSM
> Last post from Q is 12/8/20
> today is 12/25/20 exactly 17 days from the 8th
>Last Q post is a video of the song "were not gonna take it" >literally 2 seconds in there is a car bomb blowing up > vid here https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O1l-nR1Apj4
> Today police are called in to area with a report of a shooting
> when they get there there is no shooting > MSM narrative is that the police noticed a weird van > in reality we have a video here https://streamable.com/pwqspa that shows a loud speaker saying to evacuate the area > thats when the police started telling people to evacuate > bomb them goes off at the time and date when nobody would be out on the street > nearby there is an AT&T building that is also used by NSA for communications > Fox news commentator and news anchors here are dumbfounded https://streamable.com/y5g935
> they speak about how this doesn't fit the MO of a terror attack
> "its almost like they wanted to warn the cops and nobody to get hurt"

I have been a long time staunch enemy of Q, but the similarities are too much to ignore.

Guys, the bombing isnt the happening, If this truly was a Q operation, the true happening is that there are freedom fighters and they just declared war.

will make a new thread.

Then its obvious that the bombing happened NOT to harm people physical, but to target that location to render affliction to another target. What needs to be looked at is:
What was destroyed at the location by the explosion? What was rendered inoperable by it? What are the services that are now down because of that? Try to look at a list of the things that were affected by this, and look for what could stand out? Did anything essential get put offline for a time?

I'm also sort of convinced that it may have been either an Antifa/BLM with Weathermen guidance, or some Ted-Pilled anti-globohomo/anti-tech group.
I can't even think of a name of a Ted-Pilled group anyone got one?

The Weathermen would call Police, etc, before detonating their devices during the '70s and stored up enough dynamite/TNT for the next 30 years.

Nice get anon. So lets put the two things we know together and try to think of something.
1. The people behind it had no intention of causing people harm from it physically.
2. It knocked out communications for people.

I am starting to get a strange theory here, can anyone tell me if agencies in the government have a way to tell which people use AT&T and which ones do not?

Susan Rosenberg, BLM Activist, was one of them.
She was prosecuted and sentence to life(?) in prison for bombing federal building(s) but Bill Clinton pardoned her in the late '90's, or right before Bush II became President.

Very interesting anon. My theory is far more simple. The government wanted to arrest someone that they knew had accomplices far away in other states they could warn, and knew that person was in Nashville and their phone service was AT&T, so, cut the signal, arrest them, no witnesses, no warnings sent out to their accomplices, a clean sweep before the communications came back.

The Q-angle, I believe is off.
Q-related material is very cryptic and after the fact.
Just contact Jim Watkins from 8 c h and see what he says.
He's in charge of all that nonsense over there
Although they may have been Q-tards or something at some point, it is more likely that they may rather be related to an Anti-Tech group, such as one that Ted Kaczynski might inspire than a Q-related group.
Q-Related folks are more likely to be conservative-minded and more likely to follow the law.
Plus, Q-Tards, for some reason, are made to look like some White Supremacists, for some dumb reason, when in fact, they are all just delusional MAGA-Tards.
That's why I'm leaning more towards an Antifa/BLM-type group with either Weathermen influence or direct guidance from Weathermen 'members' (or "former members" because The Weathermen don't exist in some people's minds.)

I do believe Qtards are conservative and follow the law, but I don't know if the orchestrators of Q are law abiding, for all I know they likely are (((them)))). I am concerned with the symbolism cryptic shit aligning with the number 17 which correlates to Q in the alphabet.

I do believe the antifa/BLM thing is plausible, but with biden "winning" why would they do that? what do they have to gain? unless they are trying to scapegoat on Q-MAGA shit to give the appearance of violent resistance.

But even if they were doing that - what the point? whats the motive? everyone already believes the MAGA movement is full of violent domestic terrorists, the have used shit like floyd and other things to push the violent narrative. A bomb that killed nobody.. i mean what do they get out of it?

Or if its mossad/CIA, when they did the marathon bombing they got stuff out of it, was shilled by family guy and other media sources before hand, this time it was not.

We have to get to the bottom of this, desu most of the time its straightforward, this is the first time in a long time I've been stumped. this shit dont add up.

Antifa/BLM: no. they are even unhappy with Biden. They hate the government and want communism. Anarcho-Communists.
Stumped: #metoo - usually some group claims responsibility, leading me to believe that if going the route of not claiming responsibility creates further anarchy, then it could be the Anarcho-Communists, aka Antifa/BLM.

Agreeing with OP, everything about this looks like globopedo.
-coincides with, still alleged, schiff arrest in LA
-no christian would do this on christmas, so not white folk
-BLM and antifa are fed organizations and totally coopted by jews and fbi dod
-video does not show an RV exploding, if anything it shows a car exploding
-saying it was an RV though, like the whole malvo sniper event, gives law enforcement and everyone reason to suspect a lot of patriots who live in rvs
-nothing really damaged, no actual loss of american infrastructure, or dead bodies, so a pure propaganda event

-jews could pull this off with mossad 5th column and their henchmen traitors in the masonic cucks, as stated there is a mason HQ nearby as in all midwest downtown areas
-again on christmas, remember christchurch? so the entire house of moloch loves doing anything that ruins christmas or christian churches
-anyone who thinks some kind of mcveigh operation could roll into downtown metro area in an RV with license plates and do something like this is a complete idiot, but that is 110% who they are going to try to blame it on or want you to think did it.
tl;dr it is jews. jews want war with iran, they want trump supporters branded as terrorists if not in fact, then in accusation.
ITT you will find evidence of jews connection to dominion election fiasco, and see them try to blame in in real time on iran and venezuela:

Yes correct. Apparently at&t not working in Cheatham County either. It’s weird. Nashville is a cabal owned city. I’ve been telling ppl that for years. Their symbolism is everywhere from the pedo swirl body farm advertising on the Charlotte Avenue mural to the Adventure Science museum being aPyramid to the many businesses downtown owned by cabal interests. They built up a lot of businesses that didn’t belong here and pp wouldn’t frequent. They are probably front businesses to launder money.

And this is just my hunch but Antioch Tn seems to be spook territory where they pull off false flags like the Waffle House shooting and stuff.

ATF just got punked down and accidentally stepped on their own toes when it comes to interpretation of NFA, which is like 99% of their justification for existing. They're notorious for false flagging for the sake of funding/relevance.

i had several good jewish friends growing up.

one of them ended up reporting me to all the intelligence agencies and even a fraud call to animal protective services (lol) when I was critical of israel wanting to bomb iran and asking for canadas help. oyvey

Can confirm. The chip the CIA planted in my brain to transmit the voices telling me to rape my dog and steal from walmart loses reception in the same spots AT&T cell phones do.
Also, peep this captcha.

https://twitter.com/FordFischer/status/1342574800619900929

I have discovered something online that could be relevant to the Nashville explosion, but I want to be extremely clear that I don't know what - if anything - to infer from it.

I'm hoping appropriate experts and authorities can take a look.

A video on Youtube has gone viral showing the scene of the explosion.

The account that posted it is called "S McG" and has no bio or info, and has never posted until today since joining in 2014.

Vid: https://youtube.com/watch?v=5nygTJeu9fU
Channel: https://youtube.com/channel/UCNzhdk3QE3fvjBeErPtBl-w

The account that posted the clip to Twitter only joined this month and has also never posted before today.

The video turns black and white following the explosion in both uploads.

The next tweet is the curious part.

S McG" who posted the bombing video has an almost identical username to "S Mc G" - who only joined Youtube in April 2020 and also has no bio.

The five videos posted on it, posted over the course of three weeks, are all very bizarre.

https://youtube.com/channel/UCqVb5A01dRgMOZl4EOQi8wg/videos

This video is posted twice by "S Mc G" on their Youtube.

It montages COVID-19 announcements and reports over music, and then turns to black and white images of destruction, before a clip I don't know how to describe.

https://youtube.com/watch?v=Je6JHzbBjTk and https://youtube.com/watch?v=hBJlrSdidlk
Their previous post was October 1st, where the video is a static image of the term "Apocalypse" searched on "DuckDuckGo" with Hans Zimmer's "Dream Is Collapsing" track from Inception in the background.

https://youtube.com/watch?v=i9LopLKTWGA

Their only other two uploads appear to be screencapped videos of President Trump with the Kanye West song "Black Skinhead" over it.

The videos are identical other than that one has twenty seconds of other music afterwards.
